Dear Parishioners,

Are Catholic Schools for Your Child?

As a Catholic parent, one of the most important decisions in your life and in the lives of your children is that of choosing the education that will most benefit them. Consider the following reasons a Catholic school is right for your children.

Catholic schools:

- have a proven record of academic excellence.
- work closely with you for the good of your children.
- continue the religious formation of your children begun in your home.
- have clear and precise goals with high expectations.
- provide a challenging atmosphere.
- maintain a secure, disciplined environment.
- have educators who are deeply committed to the academic and spiritual development of children.

St. Rose School students score above the national average each year in standardized tests and our graduates regularly place in honors courses at the high schools they attend. Moreover, our Christian environment and emphasis on Christian values form children who are polite, self-disciplined and respectful—indispensable qualities for success and happiness in life.

This weekend is Open House at St. Rose School. If you have school-aged children, please consider sending them to St. Rose of Lima School. Yes, it will entail a financial sacrifice (one I try to keep as low as possible), but it’s an investment in your son’s and/or daughter’s future—one you will never regret! If you have any questions or would like more information, please call our principal, Mrs. Jeannine Fuller at 739-6937, visit our website at www.saintroseschool.com or stop by and see the school this weekend. God bless you in the week ahead.

Fr. Wilson

PS Deacon Edsall and I will bless throats after all the Masses next weekend in honor of St. Blaise. Everyone is welcome to receive this special blessing.
