Dear Parishioners,

One of the most painful experiences for any person is a broken marriage. The social, psychological, health and emotional consequences are often devastating. Where children are involved, the consequences are multiplied and made even more intense.

In the spirit of the Year of Evangelization, our diocese is offering a new program called “The Broken Vows to New Hope Support Group for Separated and Divorced Catholics.” This eight part series embraces the teachings, graces and love of our Catholic Faith and provides a peaceful environment for Catholics who have experienced a marital separation or divorce. Designed to help Catholics grow and heal as individuals, the meetings provide time to share and discuss topics related to the common experiences of separation and divorce.

The first series will be offered to parishioners of our local area at St. Timothy Parish, 1799 Warwick Avenue on consecutive Thursdays beginning March 4th. Each group meeting will begin at 7:00 PM and last for 1 ½ to 2 hours. The meetings will be facilitated by Mr. Peter Magnotta, MSW, LICSW (who developed the program along with two Rhode Island College interns). For more information, please contact Peter at the Office of Life & Family at 421-7833 ext. 117. Additionally, brochures are available at our Parish Office. Please stop by and pick one up.

While divorce is painful and difficult, no one should have to suffer alone. This program is a wonderful opportunity to share experiences and seek healing and peace through the love and mercy of Jesus. I encourage anyone who is divorced or separated to look into this program and see if it may be right for you. In a special way, I will keep all those who are divorced or separated in my prayers this week. May the Lord bless you with healing and strength.

God bless you in the week ahead.
