Dear Parishioners,

Our two First Communion Masses this year were beautiful! The children (57 in total) were perfect and received Jesus for the first time with excitement and joy in their eyes. The Crowning of our Blessed Mother finished both Masses perfectly!! My thanks to our Religious Education Director, Mrs. Cheryl Berube, and our Second Grade teachers in both our CCD program (Mrs. Becky Grenkiewicz, Mrs. Jo-Ann Morey, Ms. Naomi Vieira and Mrs. Maria Jessing) and at St. Rose of Lima School (Mrs. Stacey Wildenhain) for all their hard work preparing our First Communicants. A special word of thanks to Mr. Thomas Hogan, Ms. Claire Masterson and Mrs. Maggie Wallentin for the beautiful music!

Would you please say an extra prayer for our First Communion children and their parents? For some, this is the First and Last Communion until Christmas or later. In these confusing and difficult times, we need the Eucharist more than ever to keep our heads clear and our hearts open to love and forgive. May Jesus draw them back each and every week to Mass!

Please take a look at the thank you note I received this week from Westbay Marketplace (you'll find it in the bulletin). Congratulations to everyone—and thank you for your amazing generosity to the needy!

Our Monday devotions in honor of Mary were well attended last week—thank you! Please join me again this Monday as we continue our prayers to our Blessed Mother!

Our parish superintendent for many years, Mr. Anthony DiSaia, and his wife, Mary, are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this Friday, May 20th. On behalf of our parish, I offer our sincerest congratulations to them on this marvelous milestone. Please offer a prayer for them—and for all married couples who are celebrating major anniversary milestones this year.

What's up with this weather? When did we all move to Seattle?! God bless you in the week ahead.

Fr. Wilson
