Dear Parishioners,

While the election is over (finally!) and we wait to see what direction our new leaders will take us, nothing has changed for us Christians—we continue on our journey to God’s kingdom. No matter who’s in office, Jesus Christ remains our Way, our Truth and our Life! It is His voice we listen to above all others as we prayerfully support our elected officials and hope their decisions will be filled with wisdom from above. O Mary, Patroness of the United States, pray for us!

If you haven’t notice already, please take a look at our newly re-upholstered kneelers in the candle room. They look beautiful!! My thanks to Mr. Donald Wildenhain and his family for having them re-done. May God bless Don, Stacey, Brenden and Evan for their kindness and generosity to our parish.

After much planning and preparation, the carpeting in St. Clement Church will be replaced this week. The work is being done by Ruggieri Carpet One Floor & Home of Cranston. Their work is always outstanding—and I’m sure it will be this time as well.

Our Thanksgiving Food Drive continues. Please deposit all dry and canned goods in our large food bin in the main foyer of the church any day of the week. If you would like to donate a grocery store gift card instead of carrying in non-perishable food items, please stop by the parish office or drop the card in the collection basket. There are many people who are looking for assistance this year. In their name, I thank you for whatever you can do.

Finally, flu season will soon be upon us. Please keep these simple practices in mind: wash your hands often, stay home if you’re sick, don’t share personal items, and cough/sneeze into a tissue or sleeve (not your hands!). These little precautions will help keep you safe from the flu. Additionally, during the Sign of Peace at Mass, please nod, wave or just say “Peace be with You” to your neighbor if you don’t feel well or are susceptible to the flu. And please don’t take offense if someone won’t shake your hand—I’m sure he or she is just trying to stay healthy. God willing, we’ll all escape a serious bout with the flu this year. God bless you in the week ahead.

Fr. Wilson
