Dear Parishioners,

It is often said, “You can’t go home again.” Not so with the Catholic Church. No matter how long a person has been away, he or she can always come home. By virtue of our Baptism, we are forever God’s children. And no matter how far away we wander from the Church, we are welcome to come home because Jesus loves us yesterday, today and forever!

Yet Jesus never forces us to come home. He only invites—and so must we! Whether or not a person returns to the Church is a decision only he or she can make. Our work is to speak about Jesus and welcome them to join us at any time.

But why would people want to return to the Church? What draws them back? Here are the top ten reasons that influenced the decision of people to return to their Catholic Faith:

Number 10: Because they want meaning in life. In today’s busy world, lots of people suddenly realize that their lives have lost a sense of meaning or purpose. They begin to ask, “Who am I? What is my life about? Why do I do what I do?” The Church has answers to all these questions.

Number 9: Because childhood memories surface. As children, we feel deeply connected to God. That wanes as we age and commit more and more sin. Some people recall that connection later in life and long to have it anew. The Church will happily help them to reconnect.

Number 8: Because they made mistakes. Sin wearies and burdens people. The guilt of hurting others weighs on them. They want to start over again with a clean slate. Confession frees them from their sins and gives them that new beginning.

Number 7: Because they need to forgive others. Anger and resentment toward individuals who have hurt us are spiritual cancers that eat away our heart. People want to learn how to forgive others so they can find peace. The Church teaches them how.

Number 6: Because they want to be healed. Some people carry deep spiritual wounds. Some struggle with anger at God over bad things that have happened. The Church cannot change these things but can give spiritual healing and hope through the power of the sacraments.

I hope you found those helpful. The last five will follow next week. May God bless you with a new year filled with good health, prosperity and peace!

New Year's Words. . .

“To leave the old with a burst of song;
To recall the right and forgive the wrong;
To forget the things that bind you fast
to the vain regrets of the year that's past;
To have the strength to let go your hold
of the not worthwhile of the days grown old;
To dare go forth with a purpose true
to the unknown task of the year that's new;
To help your brother/sister along the road;
To do his/her work and lift his/her load;
To add your gift to the world's good cheer
is to have and to give a Happy New Year.”

PRAYER FOR PEACE

We ask, O God, for the grace to be our best selves.

We ask for the vision to be builders of the human community rather than its destroyers.

We ask for the humility as a people to understand the fears and hopes of other peoples.

We ask for the love it takes to bequeath to the children of the world to come more than the failures of our own making.

We ask for the heart it takes to care for all people as well as for ourselves. Amen.
