Dear Parishioners,

We welcome to our parish this weekend for our annual Parish Mission Fr. Nicholas P. Smith. Fr. Smith is a newly retired priest of our diocese who is no stranger to many of you. His quick wit, Irish brogue, and down-to-earth spirituality are a delight, and will inspire us all. I hope you will join us each night for what promises to be a wonderful, heartwarming mission experience.

This Friday our Confirmation candidates will attend an all-day retreat in preparation for their Confirmation on Saturday, April 27th. Please keep them in your prayers as they get closer to this milestone in their journey to God's kingdom.

Next Sunday at 2:00 PM, our second grade students (67 of them!) will make their First Confession. It's not like years ago when we were all shaking in our shoes! Today, we emphasize the love, mercy and healing power found in this sacrament. Please say a prayer for our little ones—and make a promise to yourself that you will make a good Confession this Lent (even if you haven't been in years!). You'll be surprised at how much peace and freedom this powerful sacrament offers.

Our Catholic Charity Fund Appeal is off to a great start! We collected $68,073 last weekend towards our goal of $102,000! Next weekend, we will hold our second "In-Pew" solicitation for the Appeal. Please drop your pledges in the collection basket or at the Parish Office. Thank you for responding so generously to the needy of our diocese.

How are your Lenten sacrifices going? Usually by this time we're beginning to feel the weight of them—or maybe have given up. All of us struggle with the good intentions of Ash Wednesday, and some (perhaps many) of us fail. The important thing is to get-up and try again! God loves our efforts and is ready to help us keep going or start anew when we fail. Keep the faith—stay the course—try again! God is blessing you through it all! Again, I strongly encourage you to attend daily Mass. The Eucharist is the most powerful force on earth for good—and the greatest gift we could ever receive! Strengthening the presence of Jesus in your heart brings peace and joy beyond imagining. Come and see—you won't be disappointed.

See you at the Parish Mission!!

Fr. Wilson

PS There will be a Children's Mass next Sunday. I hope you can join us.

Lastly, the school would like to thank Nick, Ron and Pete Cardi from Cardi's Furniture for the donation of the beautiful new furniture.
